

NEW YORK BANKER MAKES SUGGESTION

Says 'If a Man Is a Hopeless, Helpless, Habitual Drunkard, Chloroform Him!'

FIGHTS PLAN OF THE CITY

Opposes Scheme to Spend Money for Institution in Country Where Habitual Drunkards May Be Sent to Recuperate and, If Possible, Overcome the Curse of the Habit.

New York, Oct. 28.—"If a man is a hopeless, helpless, habitual drunkard, chloroform him!"

This suggestion was made in all seriousness by Stewart Browne, banker and big real estate owner, who is fighting the plan of New York city to spend a quarter of a million dollars for an institution in the country where habitual drunkards may be sent to recuperate and, if possible, overcome the curse of the habit.

Makes Serious Speech. "These men will be sent to the country at the taxpayers' expense," said Mr. Browne in a heated and serious speech. "They will eat fresh eggs and vegetables and have a good time generally while they are going into training for their next bout with John Barleycorn."

"What good are these men to the community, anyhow? It seems to me it would be a much better plan for the city to chloroform them."

The argument was before the board of estimate and President McAneny of the board of aldermen was on his feet in instant protest.

Calls Suggestion Trivial. "It seems to me that is a pretty light and trivial suggestion," he belittled at Mr. Browne.

"Not at all," replied Browne. "If these men are the habitual, hopeless, helpless drunkards you say they are, it appears to me they cannot be cured. Everyone knows that a habitual drunkard cannot, or as a rule will not, get on his feet. And I repeat, 'What good are they to the community?'"

Another suggestion was that drunkards be put on board ship and sent to the European war.

HITS AFTERNOON VISITS

PASTOR SCORES MINISTERS WHO CALL ON WIVES WHILE HUSBANDS ARE AT WORK.

Cincinnati, Oct. 28.—Rev. F. Taylor, Indianapolis pastor, told ministers assembled at the interdenominational institute at the Ninth Street Baptist church "the practice of ministers going from house to house making afternoon calls on church women while their husbands are at work causes more trouble for the church than it does good."

"This calling business may possibly suit some men, but not me," said Rev. Taylor. "I wish I could meet the man who started it. There is nothing about afternoon calls in the Scriptures. I go downtown to see the men in their places of business. You cannot get this sort of fish with a net; you have to use a hook and line—but when you do land him you feel that you have done something. The other way is harmful."

Orville Wright Aids Suffragists. Dayton, O., Oct. 28.—Orville Wright, co-inventor of the airplane, acted as chairman of the men's committee which assisted in getting up Dayton's big suffrage parade. Mr. Wright has always been generous in his recognition of woman's ability and importance in the world of affairs. He has repeatedly given credit to his sister for working out many of the mathematical problems which arose during the experimental stages of the flying art.

NEW REVOLT BREAKS OUT IN SOUTH AFRICA

Gens. De Wet and Beyers Lead Rebels in Two Provinces of the Country.

London, Oct. 28.—Another rebellion has broken out in South Africa. Gen. Christian De Wet and Gen. Christian Frederick Beyers have taken the lead of the rebels in the Orange Free State and western Transvaal.

Having put down the rebellion in the northern province of Cape Colony, led by Lieut. Col. Maritz, the government of the union of South Africa is faced by a more serious rising.

According to an official report just received armed rebellious commands are in existence; the town of Heilbron, in the northern part of the Orange River colony, has been seized and the government officials have been taken prisoners, while a train has been stopped and armed citizens of the defense force have been taken from it and disarmed.

The union government has issued a proclamation to the people, announcing these events and explaining that, although it was aware of these rebellious preparations, it had been taking steps to preserve peace without bloodshed.

"Now," continues the proclamation, "the duty of the government is clear. It is determined to deal with the matter with a firm hand and is taking all necessary steps to this end. The very great majority of citizens in every province of the union are thoroughly loyal and detest the very idea of rebellion. When they are aware of the situation they will undoubtedly give the government every assistance in restoring order and will carefully abstain from giving the rebellious movement any encouragement or support."

The citizens are called upon to be on the alert and give the government information and assistance, and those who have been guilty of disobedience under the defense act are advised that no action will be taken against them if they remain quietly at home.

Gen. De Wet, in the late South African war, was commander-in-chief of the Orange Free State forces. He was commander at Ladysmith and was sent to relieve Gen. Cronje as second in command. After Gen. Cronje's surrender he received full command. He was one of the signatories of the Vereeniging peace conference and was appointed minister of agriculture in 1907.

Gen. De Wet was opposed to the government's action in regard to the present war, and early in October attempted to speak at a meeting held in protest of this action, but was prevented from doing so by a demonstration of sympathizers of Gen. Louis Botha, premier.

Brig. Gen. Beyers was also a noted figure in the South African war and was chairman of the Vereeniging peace conference. Last month he resigned as commander general of the union defense force because of his disapproval of the action of Great Britain in sending commandoes to conquer German Southwest Africa.

ASSERT GERMAN ERROR

RUSSIAN GENERALS SAY TEUTONS LOST OPPORTUNITY IN DELAYING NIGHT ATTACK.

London, Oct. 28.—Reliable information received here from Warsaw, giving a detailed history of the attempted German advance in Russian Poland, says the Russian generals are absolutely at a loss to explain what they call a German error in delaying a night attack until the opportunity was lost. At the same time, however, the Russian generals express admiration of Gen. Von Morgen's lightning advance of five German army corps over the difficult swampy regions surrounding Warsaw on the southwest.

The appearance of the Germans in this quarter was most unexpected since the German network of railway systems and the previously constructed platforms for heavy guns pointed to the probability of a German advance from the northwest or west from anywhere except the southwest. The Germans made a grave error, it is asserted, in not pursuing the advantage derived from their unexpected advance, which would have enabled them to approach within eight miles of Warsaw without their presence being made known.

HAS NEW TEACHING IDEA

SCHOOL PRINCIPAL HAS PUPILS MAKE CIVIC REPORTS TO INCREASE KNOWLEDGE.

Lorain, O., Oct. 28.—Principal Raymond Sullivan of the Charlesston school has worked out a novel plan to increase the general knowledge of pupils in the eighth grade of his schools. Each pupil was assigned one of the 48 state capitals and was instructed to write to the mayors and department heads for information concerning the city, its management, its railways, lighting systems and other features of the city's life. A mass of pamphlets and letters has been received. The pupils have been instructed to compile a report from the information.

Positively Masters Croup.

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound cuts the thick choking mucus, and clears away the phlegm. Opens up the air passages and stops the hoarse cough. The gasping, straining fight for breath gives way to quiet breathing and peaceful sleep. Harold Berg, Mass., Mich., writes: "We give Foley's Honey and Tar to our children for croup and it always acts quickly." F. A. Morris, Canfield.—Adv.

GIRLS TO BE GUESTS OF BUCKEYE STATE

Earn Free Trip to Columbus by Their Knowledge of Domestic Science.

D. A. DONOVAN,
Special Columbus Correspondent.

Columbus, Oct. 28.—Next week the state of Ohio will be host to 88 girls, one from each county. These girls have earned a free trip to the capital city by their knowledge of domestic science. They are the winners of the domestic science contest conducted by the state agricultural commission. During their stay in Columbus the girls will be given instruction in domestic science at the Ohio State university. An interesting sight-seeing program has also been arranged for them. They will be received by Gov. Cox at the executive chamber on Dec. 6. The girls are under 18 years and will be under the care of a capable chaperone while in Columbus. This is the first contest of the kind ever held in the state. In counties having domestic science contests for a free trip to Washington with the corn boys the first week in January, the girl obtaining the second highest score will receive the Columbus trip. In the contest the girls were interrogated as to their knowledge and proficiency in sewing, bread baking, cake baking and canning and preserving of fruit.

Old-Fashioned Betting Vanishing.

The day of the old-fashioned election bet seemingly is over. Some betting, of course, prevails over the state, but it is as nothing in extent as compared with the campaigns of yesterday. Not so very many years ago the betting before an election constituted one of the sports of the campaign. Hundreds of thousands of dollars changed hands on every election night and the day after. Hotels and boarding houses and saloons became the clearing houses for bet posting. The most modest voter was perfectly willing to back up his modest opinion with coin of the realm. Wagering on the result of the election was so general that betting brokers did a handsome business and raked in their per cent of profit with appalling regularity. And naturally many a voter mourned in sackcloth and ashes in the election aftermath. Also there were numberless freak bets posted, bets that would have done credit to the inhabitants of a lunatic asylum only. There were men who let their beards grow into fantastic lengths because they had a foolish faith in their own guesses. There were wheelbarrow rides amid jeering crowds. Grave and dignified fathers of families rolled peanuts in the streets. This was all in the day when an election campaign had something of the weird and the fantastic and was celebrated with all the uncanny rites that today characterize Halloween. To many people in those times the election was as a great holiday, to be celebrated accordingly. Today an entirely different atmosphere prevails. Elections are regarded more seriously—by some as a sort of necessary evil—and the old-fashioned wagering is going out of style. Of course there are a few bets being posted mainly in the large cities, but as before noted they are playthings in comparison with the enormous wagers and the grotesque ventures of former years.

Another Blow to Loan Sharks. The court of appeals of the Second district has dealt another blow to the loan sharks in upholding the law which seeks to limit the interest which lenders may make on chattel and salary security. The latest decision is the last of a successive series, every one of which turned out disastrously for the so-called illicit money lenders. In the case now decided the money lender had given a victim $35 as a loan, but had exacted of him a mortgage on every penny he would earn for three years. The lower courts held this a violation of the law and the court of appeals has seconded them.

High Court Will Recede. The supreme court will recess from Friday until Thursday of next week on account of the election. It is expected that a few decisions will be given by the court just before the recess is taken. Tuesday was decision day and but six cases were decided, the smallest number disposed of on any decision day for months. The court has been working at high speed during the past year and has its docket cleared of nearly all of the cases involving questions of wide public importance and interest.

Antwerp Conqueror Shot. London, Oct. 28.—A dispatch to the Evening News from Rotterdam says Gen. Von Beseler, the conqueror of Antwerp, is dead. It is said, the newspaper adds, he shot himself in his room at Bruges.

Collector Robbed of $1,400. New York, Oct. 28.—William Hobby, former police commissioner of Westchester county and now collector for a brewery, was held up and robbed of $1,400 in a roadside near the Catskill aqueduct.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

GEN. CARRANZA RESIGNS

HIS OFFER TO RELINQUISH POST CONDITIONED ON GEN. VILLA'S RETIREMENT.

Mexico City, Oct. 28.—Venustiano Carranza has submitted his resignation to the Aguascalientes convention. His offer to relinquish his post as supreme chief of the nation, however, is conditioned on the retirement to private life of Gen. Francisco Villa. In offering to resign Gen. Carranza said he was actuated only by the highest motives of patriotism and that acceptance or rejection of his offer must depend on whether or not his elimination would contribute toward hastening peace in the republic and the furtherance of true democratic ideas.

Torreon, Mex., Oct. 28.—Demands of Gen. Carranza for the retirement of Gens. Villa and Zapata and the relinquishment of their armies to him as a prerequisite to his retirement from the post of chief executive were refused after heated arguments in the Aguascalientes convention. The first steps also were taken to declare accepted Carranza's resignation, which has not been tendered to this conference. This would be equivalent to ousting him.

THEY TANGO TO SAFETY

COUPLES BEGIN DANCING WHEN BOILER EXPLODES AND ONLY FOUR PERSONS ARE HURT.

New York, Oct. 28.—A boiler in the basement of the Hotel Continental blew up, seriously injuring four persons and causing a panic among 700 men and women in the 10-story structure. One hundred were dining in the Cafe Boulevard, directly above the wrecked boiler. Lights in the building were extinguished. A panic seized the men and women at the cafe tables. As they groped for the door in the dark the orchestra suddenly began playing a lively tango air. The tune was infectious. Nearly 30 couples tangoed to safety.

Guards Fire on Convicts. Joliet, Ill., Oct. 28.—Two escaped convicts raced down the main street a hundred yards ahead of a score of guards armed with shotguns, while pedestrians dodged into doorways to avoid the shots fired at the fugitives. The convicts, John Stacy and John Crawford, under indeterminate sentence from Chicago, were caught in the railroad yards.

"ONE GOOD TERM DESERVES ANOTHER."

Judge J. Foster Wilkin OF THE SUPREME COURT.

In two short years he has taken rank as one of the ablest and fairest judges that has ever sat upon the Supreme Bench of Ohio. Some of his published opinions have been noticed, cited and commended by law journals and newspapers all over the state and nation. He has been called The People's Judge, "a jurist of the old school," "an old-fashioned country lawyer who brushes aside technical devices and specious pleas and goes right to the justice of the case." For learning, common sense, breadth and moral force, his opinions have been compared to Hanney's and Thurman's, Ohio's two greatest judicial magistrates. Such a man is a credit to his state. He is a good man, not a partisan, but fair and just to all men and all classes, everybody concedes that he is entitled to the full term, having made good in the short term. The election for judge is non-partisan. Every citizen in this state should be liberal enough to lay aside his politics and vote for a judge who has proved his fitness and worth, for one of the three places on the Supreme Bench which are to be filled this fall, rather than take chances on a new and untried man. If men must come and men must go with the fortunes of partisan government, the personnel of this highest judicial tribunal will soon be brought to the low level of professional office-seekers who know how to play the trade.
